

Dollars and Sense: Home Repairs, Insurance, Rebuilding and Recovery

A Free San Bruno Community Information Fair featuring Roadmap to Recovery™ Workshops

Sunday, January 9 from 1-5pm
Skyline College Student Activities Center
3300 College Drive, Building 6, San Bruno, CA 94066

Workshops led by local professionals and previous disaster survivors:

- 1pm: Inventorying and Valuing The Contents of Your Home – Experts will offer tips on listing your personal property for insurance recovery and preparedness, free United Policyholders Home Inventory flash drive tools will be distributed.
- 2pm: Repair/Rebuilding 101 - Working with construction professionals
- 3pm: Insurance Negotiations - Resolving disputes over repair methods and costs
- 4pm: Rebuild or Buy - Financial considerations (insurance, tax and real estate)

Community Information Fair will feature:

- Qualified local businesses and nonprofit organizations that have products or services to assist in the rebuilding process
- Disaster Recovery and Preparedness tools and resources
- Representatives of The City of San Bruno, PG&E, and the San Bruno Long Term Recovery Group to provide information and answer questions

This event is free and open to the general public, and raffle prizes will be distributed at workshops.

For more information about this event, please contact:
Lily Abt, Outreach Coordinator, Rebuilding Together Peninsula
650-366-6597 x226, lily@rebuildingtogetherpeninsula.org
www.rebuildingtogetherpeninsula.org | www.uphelp.org

Presented by:

Funding provided by:

