INTEREST OF THE AMICUS CURIAE

United Policyholders, is a non-profit corporation dedicated to educating policyholders about their rights and duties under their insurance policies. Specifically, United Policyholders engages in educational activities by promoting greater public understanding of insurance issues and consumer rights. United Policyholders' activities include organizing meetings, distributing written materials, and responding to requests for information from individuals, elected officials, and governmental entities. These activities are limited only to the extent that United Policyholders exists exclusively on donated labor and contributions of services and funds.

Amicus curiae has a vital interest in seeing that the standard form liability insurance policies sold to countless policyholders are interpreted properly by insurance companies and the courts. As a public interest organization, United Policyholders seeks to assist and to educate the public and the courts on policyholders' insurance rights and their efforts to have them enforced throughout the country.

FACTS

United Policyholders adopts the statement of facts as set forth in the brief of the Defendant, Counter-Plaintiff and Appellant, Cyberlogic Technologies, Inc.'s ("Cyberlogic") Statement of Facts.
