Introduction to Amy Bach & United Policyholders

Hi Gordan,

As a follow up to my email last week, I am attaching Amy Bach's contact information and copying her on this email by way of an introduction. Amy is the Executive Director of the organization I referenced earlier, United Policyholders. This group provided valuable information and support for those who lost their homes in the Fourmile Fire two years ago and they have worked in many other communities that have suffered property-damaging disasters. I recommend them without reservation.

I know that they are already connected with the County Manager in Larimer through a Boulder County employee who worked with fire victims and is managing the recovery efforts by the County. They have also shipped out a supply of their Recovery Organizer kits to be distributed at the Local Assistance Center.

Tracy and the 2-1-1 team are doing amazing work not only on the "front lines" but in keeping the rest of us informed. Our appreciation and applause to all of you.

I do not know what United Way of Larimer County plans are as part of the recovery from this still-raging fire; so if you are not the right contact for Amy, please pass her information along to the appropriate party. Also, please do not hesitate to use Foothills (and me) as support and a resource.

Best wishes to all for what we hope will be an end soon to the destruction.
Barbara
